

A Festival of Cranberries, Apples & Wine DeVINE!

SEPTEMBER 28 & 29, 2018

DAY # 1 FRIDAY SEPTEMBER 28, 2018

Join us on this special overnight adventure to Wisconsin and experience all our senses of sight, sound, smell, touch and taste! This morning we become acquainted with our fellow travelers and our tour director will have activities and points of interest for us as we travel the scenic fall colors into Wisconsin. Upon arrival at the Warrens Cranberry Festival a local docent will join us for a behind the scenes and informative tour of the growing and harvesting of cranberries. The balance of the day will be free to enjoy the festival activities including live entertainment, kitchen craft cook ware demos, pie eating competition, flower contests and a host of other fun and entertaining events. The Lions Fish Fry is an annual event at the festival and we will be enjoying this special meal today. From the festival it is a short drive to the hotel for our overnight stay. (D)

DAY # 2 SATURDAY SEPTEMBER 29, 2018

Enjoy breakfast at the hotel before another fun day awaits us. This morning we will visit the Cashton Amish Community. A local host will join us as we tour the Amish countryside to learn the history, culture and customs of these people. After lunch (on our own) we visit the Vernon Vineyards Winery for a wine tasting experience! With the fall upon us what better way to conclude our tour of Cranberries & Apples & Wine Devine than to visit the popular Gays Mills Orchards. Explore the bountiful fall harvest of apples, vegetables and canned foods or maybe enjoy a glass of cider. We arrive back home in the late afternoon, our senses satisfied and our Wisconsin adventure completed. (B)
