

THE HOLIDAYS ARE HERE

STAY ALERT

Scams Ramp Up Around the Holidays

Keep alert when you're looking for deals and shopping this holiday season. With all notifications being sent to you, make sure to think before you click!

Scammers are going to be taking advantage of the increase in communications being sent, and try to get you to fall for their schemes.

Pay attention to the emails you're opening, texts about packages you might be expecting, and the transactions on your debit or credit cards!
